

I heard on KEZI 9 news at 11:00 P.M. on Oct. 8th, 2003 that the FCC has ruled that the use of the word F#*k on network TV is protected under the freedom of expression law. If this is so I feel they have stepped over the line. I will turn off my TV, if not throw it away the first time I hear that word used on the TV. I have put up with "Shit", "Damn", the lord's name being used in vain, and now I am being pushed all all of the openly gay agenda being pushed upon myself and my children. The "F" word is definatly crossing the line. I feel that I speak for a mojority of people when I say we are one nation under God. Decisions on these matters are ours to make and should not be pushed on us or our children. "GROW SOME BALLS AND STAND UP FOR WHT YOU BELIEVE!!!!!" Wether you work for the FCC or are a citizen. We as a population control the fate of our society.
